The Venue

Moscow Olympic Rowing Course "Krylatskoe" is situated in the Western district of Moscow 10 km away from historical center of the city.

The length of the rowing course is 2,2 km, width 125 m, depth not less than 3 meters. This is one of the largest artificial rowing channels in Europe, which hosted international competitions of the highest level as well as and the Olympic games 1980.

The accommodation will be provided close to the venue of Grand Moscow Regatta.
